

Only two things really matter when moving long distance...
your possessions & your peace of mind.

A gift to you from

The Move Advocate delivers the best service, the best value, and peace of mind when moving household goods long distance or across state lines.

A move management and referral service, the program is free for long distance, state-to-state, and international moves.

Your personal move advocate will listen to your unique moving needs; arrange multiple, binding estimates from the nation's most reputable van lines; and ensure VIP service through delivery day.

And, because of the volume of moves we manage every year, our customers receive special benefits and significant discounts from our van line partners.
